I just wanted to extend a personal thank you for all your hard work.

Your energy and professionalism was world class and we are so grateful to have you as apart of our world class team of legends that made the show what it was.

Without you the show would not have happened in the way it did and we cannot thank you enough. Taking on work beyond your scope and handling it like a pro was sincerely appreciated and didn't go without notice.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

We are a collective of event experts and specialists equipped with a range of unique skill sets. We aim to unleash true potential and revolutionize your expectation on what your next strategical execution, event or production can be.

Expertises drawn from in depth knowledge, training and years of experience.

We believe that work ethic and a keen sense of willingness should be the beacon that others identify us by. There's an industry saying that 90% of the work is attitude and 10% equates to skill. While we praise ourselves with noticeably more skills compared to ten percent, we still believe that the eagerness to accomplishment starts in the mind.

PASSIONATE

Since inception we have made it our focus to to exhibit strengths of dependability and reliableness. Ensuring our clients and partners experience a true sense of loyalty, unwavering focus and honor-ability fortified by relationship.

Constantly striving to provide a secure and diminished risk outcome to our clients, creates a rational and sound environment to make informed decisions. This results in an innovative and experimental solutions.

ENGAGED

Remaining focused on, and dedicated to achieving the end result, keeping true to our clients needs and expectations are traits we pride ourselves in, all the while enjoying the process that leads to a well celebrated production.

INVOLVED

OUR COMPANY SERVICES

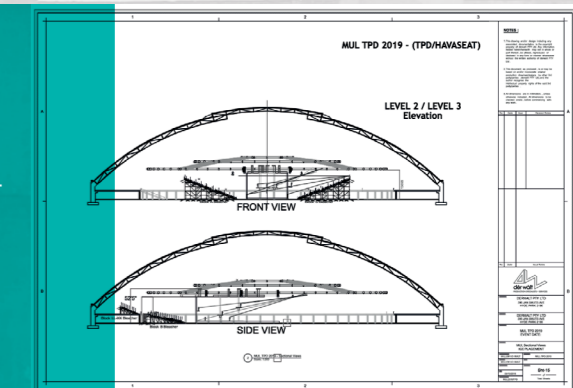

Our services focus on consulting and assisting partners in the following areas:

- Concept Creation
- Financial Forecasting
- Technical Drawings
- Event Production Management
- Activations + Experiential Engagement

Generating estimates, budgets and break even reports, based on initial concept and briefs. Providing clients and partners with adequate information to build visionary projects.

Constructing creative designs from concepts into a centralized and co-ordinated technical layout. Drawings vary per project and its requirements. Typical drawings include any of the following: Venue/ Site layouts, Space calculations, Technical-elements and premeditated placements thereof. Visual renders supply a detailed view before any work commences.

Management of various production departments including but not limited to Event Production in its entirety. Enabled to separate production management into individual spheres of Stage, Technical, Show, Health and Safety, Venue, Site Co-ordination, Logistics and Brand/ User experience.

Once a creative brief has been received from a client or partner, we will mold the ideas into a viable and practical creative solution. Materializing creative ideas and executing the original vision of the project.

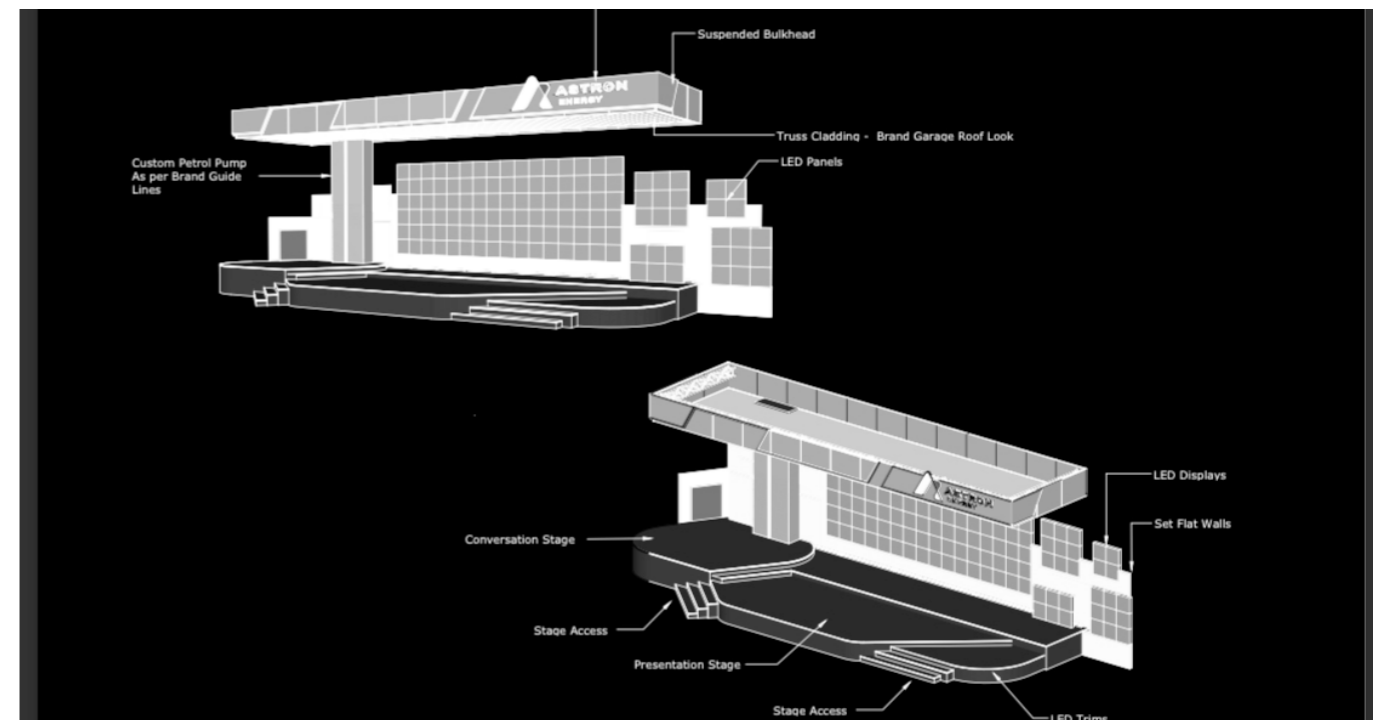

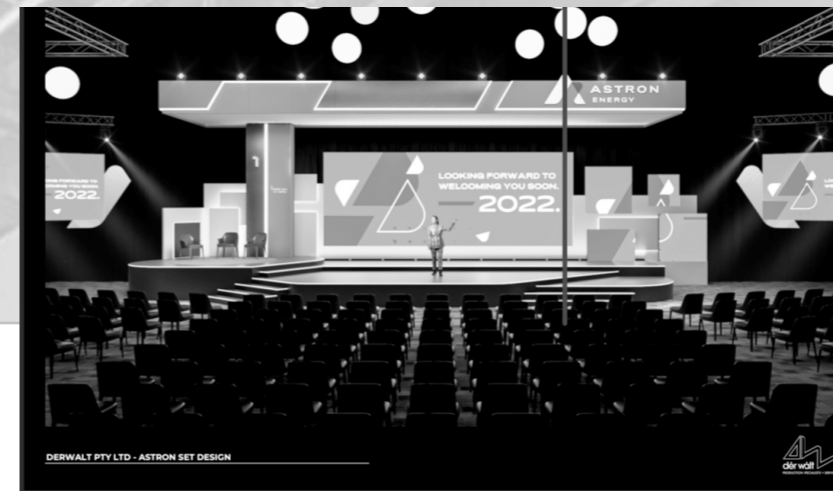

Refining and executing experiential marketing strategies, successfully transforming them from idea into reality. Activations traditionally range from unique and bespoke builds to large traveling productions.
